

Fair Lawn
by FL Resident

I wrote a poem about Fair Lawn.
It's a pretty COOL poem.
I am going to submit it!
for the 100 year a

6x6 Project

100 Year Anniversary Edition!

The Fair Lawn Arts Council (FLAC) invites you to create original works of art in a 6"x 6" format in honor of our 100 Year Celebration!

- Your piece must be 6" x 6" canvas, paper, cardboard, etc.
- Maximum of 1 submission per artist.
- All mediums are accepted. Mediums can include but are not limited to ink, paint, material, paper, collage, crayons, markers, recycled materials, etc.
- Hanging wires are not necessary. Pieces will be hung with contact strips.
- Subject matter must be family friendly and relevant to the theme of community, Fair Lawn history & the 100th Anniversary.
- Include your name, email address & title of your piece on the back.
- This will be a rotating exhibit throughout 2024! Your piece will visit the Fair Lawn Library, Fair Lawn Borough Hall and other locations throughout town! Follow @FairLawnArtsCouncil for locations.
- Join us on Sunday, March 3rd, 2:00pm-4:00pm at the FLCC Art Room to create your own 6x6 work! We'll bring art supplies; you bring the creativity!
- Please submit your pieces during the month of February to Room 109 at Borough Hall or to Emiliana at the Fair Lawn Library or at the Fair Lawn Community Center on March 3rd, 2:00pm-4:00pm.

Information:

@FairLawnArtsCouncil

Art@FairLawn.org