CHAPTER 5

DISCIPLINARY REGULATIONS

5:1 DISCIPLINARY ACTION

5:1.1 Disciplinary Action

Employees regardless of rank or assignment, shall be subject to disciplinary action, according to the nature or aggravation of the offense, for violating their oath and trust by committing an offense punishable under the laws or statutes of the United States, the State of New Jersey, local ordinances, or failure, either willfully or through negligence or incompetence to perform the duties of their rank or assignment; or for violation of any written or verbal order, policy and procedure or rule and regulation of the department; or for failure to obey any lawful instruction, order, or command of a supervisor. Disciplinary action in all cases will be decided on the merits of each case.

The disciplinary system established herein shall reflect the overarching emphasis for improving the quality of service being delivered by employees of this department. Discipline should not engender a strictly negative connotation. The disciplinary process is meant to correct employee actions and conduct that tend to impede the efficient and effective operation of the department. The proper use of discipline can achieve this objective without realizing a reduction in morale. Training and counseling shall be a function of the department's overall disciplinary system. In lieu of discipline, training and counseling shall be corrective actions used to modify an employee's performance.

5:1.2 Establishing Elements of Violation

Existence of facts establishing a violation of the law, ordinance, or rule is all that is necessary to support any allegation of such a basis for disciplinary action. Nothing in this directive prohibits disciplining or charging employees merely because the alleged act or omission does not appear herein, in the department, or in laws and ordinances within the cognizance of the department.

5:2. DEPARTMENT AUTHORITY TO DISCIPLINE

All disciplinary procedures shall be in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey, applicable case law, collective bargaining agreements, Borough personnel manual, if applicable, administrative regulations, New Jersey Civil Service Commission Rules and Borough ordinance. With the exception of emergency suspensions, department discipline must be taken or approved by the Chief of Police. If it is the Chief of Police that is to be disciplined, action must be taken by the Appropriate Authority.

5:2.1 Discipline Authority

1. Under the provisions of N.J.A.C. 4A:2-2.3, employees, regardless of rank, shall be subject to disciplinary action for:
  - a. Incompetency, inefficiency or failure to perform duties;
  - b. Insubordination;
  - c. Inability to perform duties;

- d. Chronic or excessive absenteeism or lateness;
  - e. Conviction of a crime;
  - f. Conduct unbecoming a public employee;
  - g. Neglect of duty;
  - h. Misuse of public property, including motor vehicles;
  - i. Discrimination that affects equal employment opportunity (as defined in N.J.A.C. 4A:7-1.1), including sexual harassment;
  - j. Violation of federal regulations concerning drug and alcohol use by and testing of employees who perform functions related to the operation of commercial motor vehicles, and State and local policies issued thereunder; and
  - k. Other sufficient cause.
2. Violations of any of the causes listed above may subject an employee to progressive discipline up to and including dismissal.
3. All disciplinary matters will be decided fairly and impartially on the merits of the case considering all mitigating and aggravating factors.
4. All disciplinary procedures shall be in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey, applicable case law, collective bargaining agreements, administrative regulations, Civil Service Commission rules and municipal ordinance.
5. Major Discipline
- a. Major discipline shall include:
    - 1) Removal;
    - 2) Disciplinary demotion;
    - 3) Suspension or fine for more than five (5) working days;
    - 4) Suspension or fine for five (5) working days or less where the aggregate number of days suspended or fined in any one calendar year is fifteen (15) working days or more;
    - 5) The last suspension or fine where an employee receives more than three (3) suspensions or fines of five (5) working days or less in a calendar year.
  - b. Major discipline shall be administered under the provisions of N.J.A.C. 4A:2-2 et seq., N.J.S.A. 40A:14-149, and applicable case law.
6. Minor Discipline
- a. Minor discipline includes discipline from reprimand to a suspension (or equivalent fine) of five working days or less.

- b. Minor discipline shall be administered under the provisions of N.J.A.C. 4A:2-3.1 et seq., N.J.S.A. 40A:14-147, collective bargaining agreements, and applicable case law.

5:2.2 Corrective/Disciplinary Dispositions

A system of progressive discipline shall be used, wherever appropriate and practicable. Discipline shall follow the basic concepts of due process as established in N.J.A.C. 4A:2-1 et seq. Basic guidelines include:

- 5:2.2.1 In certain situations, discipline is not required in order to correct employee performance in various areas. Performance based issues may be corrected by using the following actions:

Training - Training is encouraged as a means of improving employee effectiveness and performance through positive and constructive methods. Training and discipline are not mutually exclusive. Certain minor offenses may be handled through targeted training. Supervisors have an affirmative obligation to observe the conduct and appearance of employees and detect those instances when corrective action (training) may be necessary. Training includes:

- Verbal Instruction - The supervisor may, depending on the circumstances, provide individual on the spot training where such is indicated.
- Peer Training - The supervisor may assign the employee to another employee with experience in the area where training is indicated.
- In-Service Training - The supervisor may refer the employee to an in-service training program.

Counseling - Counseling is indicated where personal actions or job performance are in conflict with basic police practice and agency written directives. Certain first offenses are sufficiently minor in nature and may be handled by supervisors by documenting the counseling session on a performance notice. Facts to be considered in making these decisions will include, but are not limited to the person's intent, receptivity of the supervisory consulting and their desire to correct the problem. More serious infractions may indicate the need for a stronger response in place of, or in addition to, counseling. There are no appeal rights for counseling notices except as may exist under applicable collective negotiations agreements. This shall remain in the Internal Affairs files.

All training and counseling resulting from a performance issue shall be documented and forwarded through the appropriate chain of command to the Chief of Police or designee.

- 5:2.2.2 Repeat performance based issues or minor misconduct issues may be corrected through formal discipline by using the following actions:

Verbal Reprimand (written) - They are intended to be the least intrusive form of discipline. To be effective, however, written verbal reprimands must be timely. Otherwise, the employee may believe future infractions will be tolerated. In some cases, the misconduct may warrant more than counseling, but less than a written reprimand. Those instances may be handled by a supervisor who shall see that a report of the offense is documented and issued to the employee as a verbal reprimand. A verbal reprimand is more than counseling, but less than a written reprimand. There are no appeal rights for a written verbal reprimand, unless provided for in the current collective negotiations agreement. Absent further discipline, the final disposition notice regarding the discipline shall be filed in the employee's personnel file for six months and then removed at the request of the employee, with no additional discipline. This does not include the Internal Affairs files.

Written Reprimand - In some cases, the misconduct may warrant more stringent measures. In these instances, a report of the offense shall be documented and issued to the employee as a written reprimand as approved by the Chief or his designee. A written reprimand is more than a verbal reprimand, but less than formal discipline outlined below. There are no appeal rights for written reprimands except as may exist under applicable collective negotiations agreements. The final disposition notice regarding the discipline shall be filed in the employee's personnel file.

5:2.2.3 Serious misconduct issues or repeat minor misconduct issues may be corrected with more serious formal discipline using one or more of the following actions:

Formal Charges - Serious violations and those committed as one in a series of repeated violations require swift and certain punitive measures in order to maintain proper discipline within the department and must have approval of the Chief or his designee. The disciplinary documents shall remain a permanent record in the internal affairs file. The following disciplinary actions may be taken in accordance with NJAC 4A:2-2, N.J.S.A. 40A:14-149, and applicable case law.

- Monetary fine; (only when suspension would be detrimental to public health, safety or welfare and agreed upon by the employee, see NJSA 11A: 2-20)
- Suspension without pay;
- Demotion;
- Termination.

Such actions are taken when an employee's minor rule infraction is repeated despite prior corrective action, or when a violation is serious and significant enough to require punitive action. Depending upon the seriousness of the violation, punitive disciplinary action may not always be based upon the progressive disciplinary process. It may be necessary to utilize punitive disciplinary action with the first occurrence of an act or behavior.

All punitive actions applied as a result of discipline shall be documented and forwarded through the appropriate chain of command to the Chief of Police or designee.

5:2.3 Appeals Procedure

The appeals procedures in a disciplinary action shall be consistent with NJAC 4A:2-1 et seq., and/or the current collective bargaining agreements. Disciplinary charges appealed to the New Jersey Civil Service Commission transmitted for hearing to the Office of Administrative Law before an Administrative Law Judge shall be adjudicated in compliance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 et seq.

5:2.4 Endorsement and Forwarding of Disciplinary Reports

Each level in the chain of command shall forward reports bearing on disciplinary matters to the Chief of Police via the chain of command. No employee shall alter or cause to be altered any disciplinary report, issued by another supervisor. Disciplinary reports in transit through the chain of command shall not be delayed, but must be reviewed (nothing contained therein shall exclude a high ranking supervisor from providing input information as it travels through the chain of command). Disciplinary reports shall be filed in accordance with current department directives.

5:2.5 Informing the Person Being Disciplined

The employee being disciplined shall be informed of the charges, in writing and granted all procedural rights and safeguards in accordance with N.J.S.A. 11A:2-1 et seq. and N.J.A.C. 4A:2-1.1 et seq., and N.J.S.A. 40A:14-147 to 151.

5:2.6 Misconduct Observed by Police Personnel

Whenever any supervisor observes or is informed of the misconduct of another employee, which indicates the need for disciplinary action, they shall take authorized and necessary action in compliance with the Rules and Regulations. Failure by a supervisor to take any necessary action shall subject that supervisor to disciplinary action.

Lynswell – Fair Lawn Electronics Recycling Proposal

Lynswell Technologies, Inc. can offer the use of a 40 cubic yard open top container for collection of electronic items staged at the Fair Lawn Department of Public Works lot. At such time as the container is filled, Fair Lawn staff would notify Lynswell for emptying of the container. Lynswell will then choose to either:

- a) Empty the container and palletize the items at the Fair Lawn DPW lot. Transport of the electronics pallets back to the Lynswell facility would be handled by a Lynswell box truck. Lynswell will guarantee that the container will be fully emptied each visit made.
- b) Pull the full container to Lynswell's facility in Camden, NJ to be emptied. The container would then be returned to the Fair Lawn DPW lot.

All packing materials, labor, transport, and tolls necessary would be provided and paid for by Lynswell Technologies, Inc.

Items would be sorted and weighed once reaching the Lynswell facility and weights would be provided to Fair Lawn as well as a Certificate of Destruction. The weight would be divided into the following categories (see following page for detailed breakdown):

- 1) CRT Display Units – payment to Fair Lawn of $0.01 per pound
- 2) Computers/Laptops/Servers/Telecoms Equipment – payment to Fair Lawn of $0.06 per pound
- 3) All other miscellaneous hardware – payment to Fair Lawn of $0.03 per pound

Payment to the township would be done on a cumulative basis that can be determined at a later date via discussion between Fair Lawn and Lynswell Technologies, Inc (ex: monthly, quarterly, etc.).

At the end of each calendar year, Lynswell Technologies, Inc. will submit to the NJDEP and the Borough of Fair Lawn an annual tonnage report for accurate recordkeeping and reporting.
