PAUL NEWMAN

Paul Newman was nominated for Best Actor Oscars in five straight decades. His movies from Hud, Cool Hand Luke, Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, The Sting, The Verdict and the Color of Money are classics of the American cinema. But he was much more. He was also a winning race car driver and team owner. He started selling his house-made salad dressing and then expanded the company's product line, with all the profits channeled into various charities. He created the Hole in the Wall Gang summer camps for seriously ill children. And he remained married to Joanne Woodward for 50 years.

Presented by Hammer's Remembering

Bruce Hammer has been retired for over 10 years. He has found several ways of keeping his mind busy. "Hammer's Remembering" brings him into senior facilities, helps him make new friends, and enjoy an hour or so of reminiscing about a topic that's common to seniors. Bruce hopes you will find these sessions informative and entertaining.
